

Rules of the duiten savings campaign

Only customers selected by Johntoy can participate in this campaign.

Participants receive one Duit (token) for every euro invoiced by Johntoy.

Tokens can only be exchanged if the invoice amount has been paid in full.

If the invoice is not paid within the set deadline, the right to tokens will expire.

Tokens can only be exchanged for a gift on our website.

Your token balance will only remain active if at least one invoice amount is paid on time and in full each year.

In the event of a gift not being available, an equivalent gift will be delivered.

Campaign tokens are not automatically credited but need to be activated via our website.

Campaign tokens are only valid if provided with a valid code.

Participants must keep their password secure and confidential.

Participants are at all times personally responsible for each use of their account.

Gifts are always sent to the delivery address known to Johntoy.

Gifts ordered by participants will not be taken back by Johntoy.

Johntoy is not liable for gift working properly. Only the corresponding manufacturer's warranty applies to this.

By participating in this campaign, the participant automatically accepts the rules belonging to this campaign.

Participants who demonstrably misuse the campaign may be excluded from participation.

Johntoy reserves the right to stop the campaign at any time without given reasons or to change the format of the campaign itself. Johntoy, the persons or third parties engaged by it cannot be held liable for any acts arising from this campaign.

Johntoy, die durch Johntoy beauftragte Personen oder Dritte können nicht für Handlungen haftbar gemacht werden, die sich aus dieser Aktion ergeben

Complaints about this campaign can only be made by e-mail to duiten@johntoy.nl.

This campaign is governed exclusively by Dutch law.

